Michael Kimmelman Portraits: Talking with Artists

Thursday, March 31, 2005 at 7:30 pm
Memorial Art Gallery Auditorium

Michael Kimmelman: New York Times chief art critic gives an illustrated talk, the subject of which is also the title of his book, Portraits: Talking with Artists at the Met, the Modern, the Louvre and Elsewhere. Kimmelman's conversations with 18 of today's leading artists, bring to light "not only what they said about the art they chose to look at...but also what they revealed about themselves and their work in the process."

Tickets may be purchased beginning March 24 at the Memorial Art Gallery during normal museum hours. Tickets are $12 (includes Gallery admission)/ $10 for MAG members, Print Club of Rochester members, Arts & Cultural Council members, A&CCESS cardholders and UR and RIT faculty; $5 for students with ID.

Cosponsored with Arts & Cultural Council for Greater Rochester, Canandaigua National Bank & Trust, the Memorial Art Gallery, Print Club of Rochester, Rochester Institute of Technology, the Thomas and Marion Hawks Memorial Fund and individual donors.

The Arts & Cultural Council for Greater Rochester is the non-profit fiscal sponsor for this project.

This month, the Arts & Cultural Council for Greater Rochester continues this month a three-part professional development workshop series - Evaluation & Assessment in Plain English, with Andrew MacGowan of the Rochester City School District. As a follow-up to last year's popular "Evaluation 101," this series takes a deeper, hands-on look at the role of evaluation and assessment in arts in education. A must for AIE professionals, grant writers, and those interested in strengthening their understanding of this dynamic, and sometimes mysterious aspect of our work.

The Arts in Education Roundtable is supported by the New York State Council on the Arts, M&T Bank, & the Suzanne H. Lee Charitable Trust
