Arts & Cultural Council Announces Summer 2009 *Metropolitan

Rochester, NY, June 18, 2009 – The summer 2009 issue of Metropolitan, the Arts & Cultural Council for Greater Rochester's quarterly magazine, is now available at over 150 distribution points across the greater Rochester region. This issue includes feature stories on the Nazareth College Arts Center renovation; Rochester Museum & Science Center's Cunningham car exhibit; local businessman and arts supporter, Jack Kraushaar; and profiles of several upcoming exhibits.

Metropolitan is the premier source for information about arts and culture in the greater Rochester region. Each issue of Metropolitan includes full-length feature articles about the region's creative sector, including artists, innovators, cultural organizations, exhibits, performances and events, along with highlights from the Arts & Cultural Council's comprehensive regional events calendar. Published quarterly in January, April, July and October, Metropolitan has a distribution of 15,000 and an estimated readership of over 60,000. Metropolitan is mailed directly to over 3,400 individuals and organizations and is available at cultural institutions, libraries, hotels, restaurants, and retail establishments throughout our region.

For information about Metropolitan, including publication schedules and advertising rates, contact Gerard Gombatto, Director of Marketing and Special Projects, at (585) 473-4000, extension 205, or via email at ggombatto@artsrochester.org.
